

About The Surgeon & Clinic:

1. How many years of experience do you have as a Plastic Surgeon?
2. How many breast reduction procedures have you done?
3. What are the most common complications that your patients have had?
And how were they handled?
4. Do you have a "before" and "after" photo album for this procedure?
5. What is your reoperation rate?
6. Where will the surgery be conducted?
7. Is the clinic prepared and certified to assist surgeries?
8. Do you have a licensed anesthetist on board?

About the Breast Reduction Surgery

1. Am I a good candidate?
2. What can I expect after the surgery?
3. What precautions would I need to take pre-surgery and post-surgery?
4. How many days will I take to recover fully?
5. What should I do for a quick recovery?
6. Will the shape and appearance of my body change over time? If yes, how?
7. What are the risks involved in this procedure?
8. What treatment option/ technique will be used for me?
9. Where will my scar be?
10. How long will the procedure take?
11. How soon will I be able to resume my normal activities at home and work?
12. What are the chances or situations in which I will need a reoperation?

About Expected Results:

1. What are realistic results for my specific case?
2. How will the surgery impact my ability to breastfeed?
3. How will my cleavage change?
4. What additional follow-ups will I need?
5. Will I be able to get mammograms or breast ultrasound? Will the results be accurate